SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 1864.

RIOTS AT THE CHAMBERS.

For the last few days this city has been delivered up to a drunken mob of the lowest scum of society. Knives and pistols have set all law and order at defiance, and blood has flowed freely at the doors of the Senate-house. Peaceable foreigners have been accidently shot near their own houses, printing offices have been attacked, while such symptoms of revolution as tearing up the street pavements have suspended business and closed the shops in the city. Inebriated ruffians, brandishing revolvers, swagger through the streets, knocking at the doors, and enquiring the politics of the inmates. The Police look on powerless and indifferent, and the authorities hesitate to call out the troops of the Line to restore order, as such a proceeding would lead to an effusion of blood.

Meantime the mob is triumphant, and it is perfectly immaterial to the public and especially to foreigners, whether the armed ruffians belong to Crudos or Cocidos, when life and property are placed in jeopardy by both these shameful factions. All the dens of vice and infamy have been emptied to lend proselytes to either dogma, and three hundred of the greatest ruffians ever seen collected in a choice assembly have been armed to the teeth to carry terror throughout the city.

All reports of people kept away from the scene of rioting, knowing that it is only a contest between a dozen political gamblers. A few persons casually passing by this focus of disorder found themselves involved in the row; Mr. Baldin junr. was wounded by a pistol-ball, Capt. Logue was shot in the abdomen, and several wounded spectators carried off to the Policia. It seems a rara hal been played on the Club Pueblo, the Chamber unanimously that there would be no session till tomorrow, when most of the Cocidos quietly returned home. A band of Crudos then beset the Pueblo office with the apparent object of sacking the place, but were driven off. A Cocido faction was also reported to attack the Nacional office, and a body of military from the Cabildo was required to disperse them.

As soon as the Cocidos found out the trick played them they ran to the Cancha in calle Tacuari to arm themselves. Brig. General de Cruda Cordero rangued their adherents in the market-place, and prepared to resist the military in case of attack. We are told that lower down were other bodies of the Crudos in the Chamber, and the Tribuna admits that they were leading revolvers inside the hall. Any attack on the Cocidos the wounded amounted, it is said, to 30. It is probable the riots would have been fearful, but not President Mitre requested Dr. Gutierrez (chief of the Cocidos) to restrain their excesses and refrain from the contest.

At four o'clock the alarm through town was general, and it was feared a terrible emeute would take place after. About two hours later 1,000 Municipal Cocidos began to assemble at the Nacion Argentina office, and their number in the early part of the night was over a thousand.

Patrols of horse and foot perambulated the city on Friday night, and several cases of dangerous characters were arrested and conveyed to the Policia. We are informed that a crowd collected in front of the entrance about 10 p.m., and several shots were fired, but whether by the sentinels or mob is not clear. The night passed, however, quietly in the centre of the town, although most people were getting their fire-arms in readiness for any eventuality. An Englishman states that he was assailed in Plaza Victoria by a ruffian who attempted to snatch his watch, but who soon measured his length on the flags.

In the suburbs there was much firing, and several people after a sleepless night, came in, yesterday morning, to enquire whether it was time to vote again, or President that had been expelled from the capital. The reports yesterday of the wounded were more favorable; and the number of killed does not pass two or three. Among those arrested is a brother of Colonel Caseres, who went up to a body of Cocidos in the plaza, wearing round his neck the white handkerchief of the Crudos, as a defiance.

THE SESSION OF S[illegible]NATORS

ELECTIONS ANGLED

THREATENING SYNTOMS, ELECTIONS FARCE.

On yesterday morning everybody seemed anxious to learn whether we were going to have a renewal of the riots. It was known that the senators were to meet, and the general opinion was, that they would annul the elections. At an early hour the Cocido rendezvous, in Calle Tacuari, was thronged with the beaten faction, and as their numbers were more than double their opponents, a physical (certainly not moral) demonstration was resolved on. The Crudo party had, through the influence of the Provincial Government procured all the navvies and posters of the Western Railway, who were armed, in direct violation of the law, in order to check the overpowering mob of Cocidos. The latter, as we are credibly informed, then armed 'en masse:' 600 were furnished with muskets, 400 with revolvers, and the rest variously, making a formidable faction of 3,000 men.

Nor were the Crudos inactive; the knocking-down, pistols, &c., were given out gratis to every man wearing a white handkerchief, and armourers drove such a flourishing trade, that even some bootmakers exposed revolvers for sale in their windows. The genius of disturbance, M. Hector Varela, was driving about in a carriage, guiding the whirlwind, and looking after everything. But there was no collision, for the Senate almost unanimously annulled the elections as a farce, showing that ideas of right and wrong are strangely confused in Buenos Ayres, for the Lower Chamber had almost unanimously approved the same elections the day before.

The result of this decision is: that the Deputies take them, the elections being considered, for them, most moral, legal, and edifying! The Senators on the other hand refuse all contact with the candidates that they repute, a disgraceful, swindling and outrageous attempt to get into the Chamber through the windows!! The doors of the Chamber to allow of a passage with bullets and paving stones over which the legislators of the country would have to step, and the scene of fun in the South American Athens. The Senators however slap their doors upon the introducer and call for a new election.

It is generally thought that the public conscience of the new Deputies will feel remorse at the Senatorial condemnation, and that they will resign. They may, however, prefer to have gained by such heroic exertions an Church-door and in the market place. In this case we shall have a renewal of the riots.

We are, meanwhile, condemned to a repetition of the hollow farce of elections, in the case of the Senators, and it is not improbable that some minority new Deputies be also returned. If we had a voice in the Senate, it should be to annul the whole thing, and enact moreover a law that this farce which is in the end only jostling who is most strong among a drunken crowd, be abolished for ever.

We gain nothing by new elections, except another holiday for intriguers and a renewal of the orgies of Saturnalian purple of the Cesars fell so low as to be put up to auction by the Praetorian guards; the armies of those Argentine provinces who gained Independence and twice defeated the English, has been dragged in the mire by a mob of drunken niggers, hair-brained demagogues, and ruffian bullies. The Crudos and Cocidos are not to sit sen of honor and patriotism, if they have not the power for the present to change our streets and exclaiming Viva Sauvedra! Viva Mitre! Viva la Libertad!

EDITOR'S TABLE

The state of alarm in town has not diminished. There are vague rumors of revolution, and everybody talk of it standing on a volcano. To day there is every possibility of a renewal of the Crudo-Cocido riots.

We do not know whether the Races will come off to day at Belgrano. The Northern Railway advertises a special train; but the authorities ought to prevent all assemblages in such general excitement.

Tumy not be amiss to advise all our readers, especially those recently come to the country, not to go out of doors after six o'clock. Besides the risk of casual encounters with drunken and armed ruffians at street corners, they run the chance of passing the night in the Policia, if unable to produce their passport to the night-patrols.

To-day there will be a function at Merlo, on the occasion of the reception of Mr. Hood, American citizen, into the Roman Catholic Church. The parish priest, Rev. Mr. Dillon, will officiate and preach in English.

The opera last night was postponed, probably on account of the political disturbances: it is advertised for to-night, but, we anticipate, there will be an order for its suspension.

We have not been able to get up our Packet Edition as desired, for to-day; it will appear on Tuesday morning, the packet sailing same evening.

We have received four more pictures from D. Luigi Bertoli, photographer, Recoleta Square, which are very tastily executed, and represent: 1. The Socorro Church, with view of the shipping in port. 2. Mr. Drabble's quinta, house, and grounds, taken from the roof of the Socorro. 3. The Matadero or killing-ground, south end. 4. The Fine Entertaion or terminus of the Great Southern Railway.

The removal of the navvies from the Western Railway works, to join the city riots, is an outrage on decency, and on the citizens, native or foreign, by the Provincial Government. An Irishman named Lojan, informs us the works are completely suspended, the navvies being all in town, many of them drunk and armed.

Some nervous people think our narrative of murders very shocking. No doubt it is: the fault is not ours, and if Buenos Ayres has not an attractive appearance, no one can blame the mirror of a public newspaper for showing a forbidden sight.

One quacho murdered another in a pulperia on Monday evening, near the Tres Esquinas. Two men had a bandy-hand fight, on Friday, in Barracas, in Calle Bolivar: one of them was taken away horribly cut and disfigured.

ATTEMPT D ASSASSINATION

His Excellency Dr. Rawson, prime-minister of the Republic, and one of the very, very few men admitted by all parties to be above the universal corruption of B. Ayrean politicians, was stabbed by a Crudo, on Friday, in Calle Moreno. Sor. Jose M. Cuzal succeeded in seizing the assassin. Our Argentine friends have not learnt, and we were glad to see him yesterday in the street.

London Lite as seen through French eyes.

Apropos of the late execution in London, I have read a story in one of the best Paris papers, which I hasten to translate for your readers. It is always gratifying to see how correctly roughly the French understand the social life of that capital to which a man, if a good whipper, may travel in three naps, and diminish only three yards, wake, after some hours of bed, to a not very late breakfast in a London hotel. Mr. M. S——, one of the richest bankers of London, and Lord D——, are both members of the Athenæum, where they are in the habit of playing occasionally at whist for a Little while since Mr. S —— appeared as usual at his post, seemed in high spirits, and kept chaffing himself freely. Lord D —— was also in high spirits and great luck. The evening ended by the d o uling of the banker, who paced, looked at them, and said to them: "Well, my Lord, I thought I had done you for once. Look what I have got to bring me luck." And Mr. Banker produced from his pocket the head of the rope on which Calcraft had just his good poor Wright. It seems that with that hideous fortune of Lord ——Very clever, my dear S — ," says his antagonist; "what not clever enough, but we produced the other end of the rope, which we fastened on the Monday evening after the last execution, the two players appeared and set to work. Lord D —— cried out "I have beaten you at last," says he; "I got a fresh bit to day, longer than yours." "And I have been shamefully robbed," says my Lord; "I bought a grannen me the monopoly, and here are the five ace's of the five ropes used this morning." Lord D —— laughing begets this time that there are two ends to a rope," rejoins the distracted and winning banker. It is not a pleasant and natural story of two members of the At enæum in 1864! But then, you see Paris is now so close to London that they are like one city.—Paris Letter.

ROSARIO.

The mail from Chile had arrived in Rosario on Friday last, but at the time of sailing of the Peyan the general news had not been published.

The Peyan brings the results of the result of the Chilian elections, which had been hotly contested. The deputies for 24 departments are as follows:—

16 of the Government or clerical party
15 of the Mont. Varistas,
17 of the Liberals.

The sugar crop of Tucuman, this year has been upwards of 100,000 000 arrobes, and is equal to the best Pernambuco white sugar.

PARANA.

From Paraua there is not a word of news of any public interest. The gentleman who has the misfortune to be married to Mrs. Herring, who so cruelly insulted another lady, has defended her conduct. This will have a very bad effect on society, as the busiuess of Buenos Ayres, if they follow his example, will be in constant hot water.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Exports—On the 20th the British barque Rosetta, cleared out for the Antilles, with a mixed cargo, of which the only part native produce was 60 tins hides and 70 bales fodder. On the same day the Swedish barque, Carl Georg, cleared out for England, with 2,423 tons bones, 3,000 tons hides, 118 tons bone dust; also the Brazilian brig Paqueta Catharinense for the North, with 1200 quintals jerked beef.

Scene at the Chambers—On the afternoon of Thursday, when the row and noise were at full blast in Calle Moreno, Mr. Ayrton, of Anderson's, made their appearance in a carriage, and addressing the assembled multitudes of 'right men and loose women,' presented them with flowers. 'We are not swarez,' says the Tribuna, 'who these gentle dames were, but in spite of the fierce of the crowd, the ladies still continued their task of heroic patriotism.' Leap year has not yet expired.

Et tus Quoque—The 'Nacion Argentina,' which, we believe, is a Government newspaper, has an article in yesterday's edition, headed 'Chaos' enough, in which it enumerates the how some paid to the Federal (U.S.) wounded soldiers. We have looked through the list, and do not find any sum paid above 30 or 40 paper dollars (30s), like that magnificently awarded by the Argentine Government to poor Michael Norgen, for seven wounds in fighting, not for his country, but only for silver, and besides that, fighting against his will The Nacion Argentina should find a full account of Morgan's case in the 'Standard' of April the 21st. When the Government press can prove that Morgan's case has been settled, it will then be remedied by the Argentine authorities, they are at perfect liberty to tell their readers where the Paraguayan fighting soldiers who may get wounded in battle, are severely punished for getting their uniforms spoiled with gunshot holes. We are interested in all such matters does arrive, the Government press had as well fill their columns with more interesting information, than how other nations maltreat their subjects.

'In Vino Veritas'—The 'Tribuna' expresses proper, and very high drawn sentiments at some unmentioned free and enlightened citizens, on Thursday last, shouting 'Viva Rosas!' Had they been sober, and on their guard, they would have shouted their sentiments, and likely hollowed 'Viva Acosta!' or even 'Viva Caseres!' not that the latter bowls would signify much, but still they would serve to make a noise.

What a Shame!—According to the Crudo prints, it was only Cocido changadors and bastmen who were in toxicated. Does the Club Libertad patriots, and boys belong to it, not distribute liquor to the changadors and bastmen? It is perfectly absurd to suppose that, even the lowest classes in Buenos Ayres will take any prominent part or interest in the affairs of the state, if they be not bribed with cash or liquor. Some of the best men in Argentine electors, would not. Joking apart, we appeal to any respectable Argentine or foreigner, if we are not seriously, did he not feel degraded in his own estimation when he saw the class of people who assembled on the Tuesday and Wednesday last, who constituted, in reality, the political strength of this city. Some years ago, at the end of the Rosas Government of British infantry, got into such bad odour, owing to the behaviour of its members, that for a long time no recruits, the slightest claims to respectability would enlist in the ranks, nowadays a commission in the regiment. For a short time, except a rather changed effective, it is questionable man in the Argentine Provinces will vote, or have anything to do with such a contemptible and vile system of bribery. This is not only 'Standard' creed, for the newspapers of the two parties are daily pointing out what is being done in elections.

The Fairy—This toy steamer arrived at Montevideo from Rio de Janeyro on Thursday last. She is a small boat only 143 tons, 118 feet in length, and draws only 4½ feet water. She was built by Messrs. James and George Thompson, of Glasgow, it is a paddle steamer, and has an engine of 75 horse-power. She is intended to run between Rio Grande and the intermediate ports. This steamer has a large, open saloon, with out berth, there not being required, as the trips last only for a few hours She has also a saloon set apart for ladies. She made the run from Glasgow to Rio de Janeyro in 47 days, having touched at Coria, Vigo, Lisbon, Teneriffe, Pahia, and Pernambuco, and her average rate of speed during the passage was 12 and 13 knots—(T. M.)

Brazilian Fleet in the River Plate—The Rio newspapers state that the following vessels will soon sail from Rio de Janeyro for the River Plate:—The steam-frigate Amazonas; the corvettes Niteroidy and Imperial Marinheiro, and the gunboats Mearim and Araguahy—(T. M.)

Serenos—The 'Pueblo' tells a good story, almost too rich to be true. Sor. Landois in a note, which he passed to the sub director of the Company of Firemen, the Union Americana, has the following charge against the serenos. Some firemen, who were going to a fire, a few night's ago, called the attention of the serenos whom they passed on the way, to the fact of the bells telling the alarm of fire. This was 12 o'clock p.m. The guardians of astonishment which the serenos scarcely told them that the bell was tolling for a religious function. Many spectators doubtless as to the use of the serenos, and say, as though to the Witches in Macbeth—

You should be women,
And yet your beards forbid me to interpret
That you are so.

Theatre at Olivos—Last Sunday there was to have been a grand theatrical performance in this agricultural town. How do the Chivilcoyans show their appreciation of actors and actresses? In cities, the pleased audiences generally cast bouquets of flowers, in Chivilcoy we suppose they shie bundles of onions and onions.

A Model Speech—At half-past three p.m., on Friday, a party addressed the members of the Club Libertad in the small market place in the Calle Moreno, in the following wet-blankety style:—"The troops of the line are coming now upon you; you should not resist them; people should not fire on the line at their approach retire upon the Bar of the Chambers." The third and fourth sentences are somewhat ambiguous, and might easily be construed into advice to the people to reserve their fire till they got inside, and should any promiscuous shot present a good mark, then blaze away, and on the principle of Peter Simple's triangular duel, hit something if not come when.

Bridges—The bridge built by Sor. Hunt, for Government, at the Canada Honda, in the partido of Baradero, is finished, and has been handed over for the use of the public. The same engineer, Hunt, has also commenced another bridge over the Rio de Arrecifes, for the interment of 40,10 dols. mip has been paid towards the expenses of the work.

The Month of May—On the 23rd prox. it is intended to inaugurate the new section of the Western Railway from Moreno to the Villa Lujan. On the three days of national rejoicing next month, Mr. Wyld's line accordingly will make three excursions, wind willing, from the Plaza de la Victoria, in accordance with his agreement with the Government.

Fiats for the curious—The proprietors of the Boulevard Cancheller, in Rio de Janeiro, have received from New York a most ingenious machine for making lemonade refreshments, which is capable of manufacturing 1000 of these refreshing drinks in three minutes. In 1862 there were 2,285 steam locomotives in Great Britain, and it is calculated that 13,000 men are employed in engine building. There are 3,238 free-masons lodges in the world, frequented by 300,000 active members—of inactive masons, there are about 3,00 000.

Fiat for the curious.—The auction of fine imported necessaries rans took place on Friday at St. Billinghurst's. The articals were selected from some of the most fashionable establishments, Regent street, and hence were of a very pure and fine type. The prices were very good, but the best numbers were selected by Mr. Phillips, Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Peter Haw of Lujan, who became the owners of some beautiful animals. We hope that this auction will be a good enterprising countrymen on having purchased some of the real negrette breed, and we have no doubt but in the future such industry will be duly appreciated. We wish every success to the newly established sale.

Bull Fights—Bull fights are unfortunately, not extinguished, and probably will make their business decidedly profitable, as the negretto breed gives that quality to the wool which all desire, viz., quantity and quality.

The Gallows—Some old women are constantly shoving in their advice when it is not particularly required, and others, of the same sex and similar age, are perverse in retailing this babies' dash at most improper times.

The Argentine gave one rapon the knuckles for regarding the outrages in this place: our colleague most inopportunely gives a translation of a long rigmarole concerning the affairs of Entre Rios and the subject of the capital execution of a man in London for murder.

He (Mr. B.) is lately trying to advocate the abolition of capital punishment, and really his statement reads almost as well as some of Miss Braddon's stories, and has every bit as much truth in it as any of these works.

M. Luis Blume makes one statement which, we sincerely wish, was the truthful case in Buenos Ayres. He states that Dark Ketch is the superior Guard of morals in England.' We wish to God it was true, but we might be a more moral country.

Mr. Luis Blume shows but little delicacy in advocating such a move in Great Britain, where he has enjoyed refuge and hospitality for so long a time: It looks remarkably like as the Mr. Blume had a presentiment that his head would at last find itself in the noose which it has escaped so often.

However, that is not our point; we wish the Nacion Argentina to plead into itself for so boldly talking of capital punishment, a thing of which justice here are won to confess their ignorance.

We feel inclined to shout thro' the streets of this city, 'Fie with the three branched tree' instead of washing our liner feelings (and we have none to spare just now) on murderers.

We are happy to be able to report the capture by the police of an electionist, of excitable temperament, called Rufino Parraro, who during the discussion of the one of the thousand and fifty-one political points of the present day, at the corner of Artes and Temple, killed his adversary. We'll say no more about it, but cordially congratulate Sr. Canon in having under him Comisario Igarzabal.

Mob Law—Lord Bishop, Dr. Escalada, accompanied by five priests, visited on Friday the 22nd inst. the church of Merlo. He was met at the railway station by the gentry of Merlo and the neighbouring districts, and was received at the church door by the Rev. Father Dillon. A great number of people were admitted in batches to the church to receive his benediction. After dinner his lordship returned again to the city.

Hogarth in Montevideo—The 'Comercio' gives a truly Hogarthian picture of the Plaza of Montevideo, on the afternoon of the 19th inst. A pauper's funeral was proceeding through the Plaza at 6 p.m., of that day; immediately in its rear came hooping, hollowing, and singing, a votary of Bacchus; and to give a kind of relish to the whole affair, some serenos are seen bearing to the hospital a man detached from the crowd.

Flores—Flores is again within a few miles of Payaudu, with 600 men, encamped on the hacienda of some Government Consent Comercio.

The Government Loan—The Loan granted to the Oriental Government is all arranged, and is to be delivered in portions of $10,000 monthly, and interest at the rate of 7 per cent—' Comercio.'

Monte Christo—The 'Nacion' says that M. Brizuela has been committed for prison on the declarations of Señores Calvo, Coscnave, Monet, &c.

FOUR MORE MURDERS.

On Friday night a man was killed in Calle Mayo, two in Barracas, and a fourth in Calle Parque. We believe none of the assassins have been arrested. What says the Nacion Argentina?

ON CHANGE

April 23, 1864.

Specie did not suffer as much change to-day, as might be expected from the rowdy performances of Calle Peru. Quotations are 28 @ 28 ½ one to 29 10, and closed at first price.

Things are supposed to look gloomy, and consequently, foreigners are beginning to lose their former confidence in General Mitre, as a guardian of public order. Collections to-day have been very bad throughout town, and the unsettled state of affairs has no doubt some influence.

Very little is doing in produce. We heard to day of two linhuses who have abandoned sheep-farming, perhaps owing to the lawless state of the country.

We have to correct the exchange operation of Government interest, mentioned yesterday; the rate was 6¼ instead of 6% shillings. It is rumoured the Loan to the National Government is knocked on the head: since the affair of Boutinet no one likes lending anyone who may clear out before we know, and at present both Governments hold a doubtful tenure.

"Mr. Benson exhibits a large clock over the Watch-gallery. Mr. Benson exhibited, last month, have been subjected to severe tests, and have proved themselves to be of the highest excellence. The movements are of the best quality which the art of horology at present possesses. The chronometer watches were objects of great attraction, and well repaid the trouble of an investigation."—Builder's Paper, November 1, 1862.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great companies of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants at all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of its firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted to at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date,

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
